PreAward Grant Resources

NOTE:
- Entries are listed in alphabetical order, not in priority or topical order. The last page contains writing guides from select institutions and organizations.
- General advice: Start with your own well-researched idea and a draft "summary" piece containing field-smart keywords before you start searching funding sources. Also contact Sponsored Programs (bergjm@buffalostate.edu), to ensure that you understand your institutional / professional eligibility.

This resource puts information about funding and project results into your hands via multi-faceted searchable databases. Periodic reports are also published here. You may also be interested in:
- Federal RePORTER: Search for funding info from NIH, USDA, NSF, NASA, EPA, HHS, DOD, VA, etc.
- World RePORT: Get funding updates on global biomedical research.

Research.gov: https://www.research.gov/research-portal/appmanager/base/desktop?_nfpb=true&_pageLabel=research_home_page
This dashboard gives you information on your grant application status and PI profiles, as well as tools for your own funded project's management (via FastLane). The site also features (a) fellowship information; (b) access to research spending and results data; (c) a policy library; and (d) research news from NSF and the US Department of Agriculture. Of special interest may be the link on this page, to search for NSF funded projects since 1994. NOTE: Research.gov is an alternate submission portal for some NSF applications (which can also still be submitted via Fastlane).
